COHEN

Designer: Toni Rie

Metal pendant

Metal pendant that is ideal for lighting up workspaces or highlighting the atmosphere wherever it is needed.

A charming dome that ends in a point of metal, COHEN's relaxed lines are matched by its powder-soft finish in a range of subdued hues.

COHEN was designed to be placed over a kitchen counter or dining table, but a ring of diminutive circular holes at its top cast a diffuse light upward to add to the ambiance of any room.
